

On Nov. 17, the Mayor of Richmond on Monday, Mr. Roger A. Bryan and one of the second to the late date of $30,000 each to answer for an appeal upon O. H. Fisher, before the Hastings Court the following day, and in a like suit to keep the peace for twelve months. The assent is charged to have been placed in the Exchange Hotel. The usual manner comes up again on Friday.

The Legislature of Arkansas met at Little Rock, Monday, and organized by the election of John R. Hammon as President of the Senate and Samuel Mitchell as Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Governor's message is devoted mostly to the affairs of the banks and swamp lands.

A GUEST RUN.—We were shown a circular yesterday, containing letters or extracts from letters from more than fifty country merchants and agents of the highest respectability, who state that Porter's Oriental Life Insurance is well and gives universal satisfaction to its customers.

A person can judge of the popularity of the Oriental Life Insurance in this city by the statement, which has averaged two hundred and ten per day since the proprietor has occupied the present depot and sales room on the third street. Everybody should call and get a circular, which gives a full history of its origin, its success, its popularity, &c. The name of every well-known man can be given who has used this business with success. Remember the place, 90 Third street, near the post office.

We are requested to call the attention of the reader to the following extract from Wood & Co., with regard to our advertising column: "On one of the best of the kind and has come under our notice, the parties who have undertaken it come well recommended, and they have assured us it will be conducted fairly, and that the prices will be held together by any policy what ever the prospect of Democracy is a gloom

cloud in the midst of their victory. The great fact stands out that the new administration will go to power with a majority of the people who are in favor of the new policy.

The complete dissolution of the party appears imminent. The new administration will be expected to represent principles diametrically opposed to each other and to carry out a policy as different as black from white.

The slaves question was suspended and its agitation discontinued. The Democratic party to disperse and draw the strength of the opposition, but the very mass, while it has managed to attain success.

It promises now to prove the cause of its own destruction. There is greater diversity of opinion among the slaves than the question of the slaves in the South.

The Northern Democracy and the Southern Democracy are as wide apart in their views upon this subject as the North and South politics. They united in supporting the Kansas-Nebraska bill and the Cincinnati platform.

The condition of our public affairs at present demands the most earnest and serious consideration of the welfare of the nation. There is no question that the Democratic party is in a position to be of great service to the country.

The condition of the slaves is the most important question of the day. The slaves are in a position to be of great service to the country.
